

Graduate School of Science
Scholarship for International Students
(GSS Scholarship)

Application Information for April/September 2017

1. Purpose

The purpose of this scholarship is twofold: to financially support Self-Supported International Students whose academic performance is outstanding and to increase the number of students from abroad.

2. Definition of Self-Supported International Students

“Self-Supported International Students” are international students with a College Student Visa who are not receiving the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship nor any governmental scholarship from home.

3. Qualifications for Applicants

Self-Supported Students with excellent grades who pass the entrance examination for the Master’s Program at the Graduate School of Science and who newly come to Japan as a student will qualify and enter the program in either April or September 2017. Priority goes to UTRIP (University of Tokyo Research Internship Program) participants. Recipients of other scholarships starting from April or September 2017 are not eligible. There is a possibility that an applicant might be required to withdraw from this scholarship if the applicant is deemed to be the recipient of another scholarship.

4. Number of Grantees

A few (Enrolling in April or September)

5. Monthly Stipend

150,000 yen

6. Term of Scholarship

From April/September, 2017 to March/August, 2022

7. Application Procedure

Applicants should submit the application documents (Section 8) to the International Liaison Office at the Graduate School of Science by post at the time of their Graduate School application for admission into the Master’s Program.

* The application must arrive no later than the last day of each application period without fail.

10. Nomination of Candidate

Among the applicants who submitted Application documents, the Selection Committee will select and nominate candidate(s) to the Dean.

11. Selection and Result

The recipient will be decided by the Dean based on the nomination from the Selection Committee. The notification will be sent to the applicant by e-mail in one month after the acceptance letter for the Master's Program is sent out.

12. Payment of Scholarship

The stipend will be paid into the bank account quarterly after getting the confirmation of enrollment.

13. Suspension/Return of Scholarship

(1) If the grantee takes a leave of absence or a long absence from the school (including leaving Japan for more than one month), the supervisor is requested to submit documentary proof to the Dean and the stipend will be suspended with the approval of the Dean. However, in cases where the recipient is studying overseas without taking leave-of-absence, receiving research instructions elsewhere, or is away from the University on academic research, and if the supervising faculty determines and reports to the Dean in writing that the payment should be continued, the Dean may continue to allow the payment to be made without cessation.

(2) The grantee can resume the scholarship if the condition mentioned in (1) has changed and the documentary proof for this fact is submitted to the Dean by the supervisor.

14. Termination of Stipend

If the grantee meets one of the conditions listed below, the supervisor is required to submit documentary proof to the Dean and the stipend will be terminated with the approval of the Dean.

- (1) Withdrawal from the Graduate School of Science
- (2) Suspension
- (3) Severe drop in academic performance
- (4) Failure to submit a research report every fiscal year
- (5) If the grantee does not need the scholarship
- (6) If deemed inappropriate as a grantee

There might be a possibility of the scholarship being terminated due to an unexpected budget condition.

15. Return of Scholarship Payment

If the grantee quits, stops studying, or is deemed inappropriate as a scholarship grantee, the grantee may be ordered to return the scholarship payments (either in whole or partially) by the Graduate School of Science.

16. Withdrawal

The grantee can withdraw from the scholarship by consulting with the supervisor.

17. Notifications

If the grantee meets one of the conditions listed below, the supervisor is required to submit the notification to the Dean.

- (1) Leave of absence, return to school or long absence from school
- (2) Withdrawal from the Graduate School of Science
- (3) Suspension
- (4) Change in address, name, contact information and other important matters

18. Submission of Research Report

The scholarship grantees are required to submit a research report at the end of every fiscal year (the end of March) to the Dean with approval from the supervisor.
