HONGO campus map

The main Hongo campus occupies the former estate of the Maeda family, Edo period feudal lords of Kaga Province. The university’s best known landmark, Akamon (the Red Gate), is a relic of this era. The symbol of the university is the ginkgo leaf, from the trees found throughout the area.