

September 10, 2014

Guidelines for “The Third Forum for Prof. John L. Hall and Young Research careers”

Advanced Leading Graduate Course for Photon Science (ALPS) will hold “The Third Forum for Prof. John L. Hall and Young Research careers” at Koshiba Hall on October 24, 2014.

1. Schedule (Provisionary)

- 10:30-10:40 Opening Remarks: Prof. Makoto Gonokami (Program coordinator)
- 10:40-11:55 Short presentations by young researchers
- 12:00-13:50 Lunch and round-table discussion
- 14:00-16:00 Poster session
- 16:00-16:10 Comments from Prof. Hall
- 16:10-16:20 Closing Remarks:
Prof. Kaoru Yamanouchi (Chairman, Academic affairs)

2. Qualification of applicants

The applicant must be a student from ALPS course who is willing to give a 5 minutes presentation, participate in the Lunch round-table discussion and poster session. The forum will be held in English. About 8 students will be accepted. Please note that ALPS office might adjust the number of students among the departments.

3. Application

Please send the application form to ALPS Office by email (Microsoft word or PDF). The title of email should be <ALPS Forum application>.

4. Application deadline

Tuesday, September 16, 2014

The results will be emailed to you.

5. Contact information

Advanced Leading Graduate Course for Photon Science (ALPS) office
(EX : 24340)

E-mail address: alps@adm.s.u-tokyo.ac.jp